The venue

The workshop is held in the centre of Antwerp city, in the historic building Hof van Liere, which is part of the city campus of the University of Antwerp (address: Prinsstraat 13). The beautiful 16th-century building provides an oasis of calm in the bustling city centre. The EIPEN 2019 Conference is also held at this location.

Expert trainers

The experts are from leading institutions having a long tradition and built-up expertise in interprofessional education: Matic Kavcic (University of Ljubljana), Tiina Tervaskanto-Maentausta & Minna Manninen (Oulu University of Applied Sciences), Bianka Vandaele & Nadja Brocatus (Artevelde University College), Giannoula Tsakitzidis & Paul Van Royen (University of Antwerp), & Andre Vyt (University of Ghent & Artevelde UC).

Materials

The experts have authored chapters in the volume Interprofessional Education in Europe: Policy and Practice (2015). Also the EIPEN key competences and the IPEQS toolbox (Interprofessional Practice & Education Quality Scales, 2019) will be used. Participants receive these documents for free.

Registration

The number of participants is limited. Participation is guaranteed when registering before June 30th. There is 50% refund when participation is cancelled before June 30th, and no refund when cancelled after this date.

EIPEN members have priority and pay 240€. The fee for non-members is 360€. Staff members of institutions who are member of COEHRE or ENPHE pay a reduced fee of 300€. The fee covers participation, documents, dinner on Tuesday, and lunch on Wednesday. Participants receive an invoice upon registering. Participants need to cover their own travel and hotel arrangements.
